It is with the utmoſt Satisfaction that a whole People diſcern, and with the ſincereſt Acclamations of Joy applaud the Wiſdom and Prudence of His Majeſty's Choice: His Love to his Subjects, and Care of their Poſterity, in preferring a Princeſs to be his Conſort, who derives her Deſcent from an illuſtrious Houſe, endeared to us by its ſteady Attachment to the Proteſtant Intereſt, and in particular to the Royal Line of Hanover, and one who is every Way equal to the high Dignity which ſhe ſo happily ſhares, and formed by Heaven to ſoften the Cares, and lighten the Burthen of Government, and to ſweeten His Retirements with all the ſocial Joys of domeſtic Life.

To crown our utmoſt Wiſhes, and to ſecure to yourſelf and People the moſt laſting Glory and Happineſs, may your Deſcendants fill the Throne to lateſt Poſterity; and may your Majeſty long live in the benign Influence of our Gracious Monarch's Affections, and be the nurſing Mother of a flouriſhing and grateful People.

It is our moſt earneſt and hearty Prayer, that God may long preſerve your Majeſty, and may ſo bleſs your Royal Nuptials, as that from this happy Union, a numerous Race of Princes may ariſe, emulating the Virtues of their Royal Parents, and by whom, the Glories of this moſt diſtinguiſhed Reign, ſhall be tranſmitted to lateſt Poſterity.

With Hearts full of Gratitude, permit us to acknowledge your Majeſty's Patriotic Declaration, founded on the Welfare and Happineſs of your People; and with Hearts full of Joy to congratulate you on the Advance your Majeſty has made towards your own: Happy, in the endearing Conſideration, that our moſt gracious Sovereign, and his faithful Subjects, had one common Wiſh; and have now the Joy of ſeeing that Wiſh compleated in your Majeſty's Union with a Princeſs, the Object of your Royal Choice, not leſs diſtinguiſhed by the Ornaments of Her Mind, Luſtre of Her Character, and Her declared clared Attachment to the Proteſtant Religion, than by the additional Dignity She receives, as the Royal Partner of your Majeſty's Throne and Kingdoms.

Thus illuſtriouſly diſtinguiſhed as a Royal Pair, enobled with every amiable and exalted Virtue, long may your Majeſties continue to add Luſtre to the Crown, and Stability to the Throne of Great Britain, by your truly Britiſh and Conſtitutional Attachments; and whenever it ſhall pleaſe the Almighty King of Kings to exchange your earthly for an Heavenly Crown, may the bleſſed Fruits of your Majey's Royal Nuptials ſupport, maintain, and deliver to lateſt Ages, the Perfection of the Britiſh Conſtitution, the Bulwark of Liberty, Civil and Religious, the Security of Happineſs to Sovereign and Subject, to the Honour of your Majeſty's Auſpicious and ever memorable Reign, till Time ſhall be no more.

Given under our Common Seal this 30th Day of October, 1761.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, and Grand Jury, of the County of Warwick, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Hertford, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Warwick, and Sir Charles Mordaunt, Bart. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, and Grand Jury of the County of Warwick.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, and Grand Jury, of the County of Warwick, at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace aſſembled at Warwick this Sixth Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty one, beg Leave to join, with the reſt of your faithful People, in ſincere Congratulations on the Marriage of your Majeſty with the Princeſs of Mecklenburgh Strelitz.

Your Majeſty's unwearied Attention to promote the Happineſs of your Subjects, obliged them to form the moſt anxious Wiſhes for your own: Theſe are fully anſwered, and there is now nothing left for them to deſire, but that Poſterity may partake of the Bleſſings which they enjoy,

And it is with an undiſſembled Pleaſure that they can look forward to a Race of Princes, ſpringing from your Majeſty and your Illuſtrious Conſort, educated under your Eye, and taught, by your Example, to know, from their earlieſt Years, how much the moſt exalted Station upon Earth, is dignified by the Practice of Religious and Civil Virtue.

All that we can offer to your Majeſty, is a firm Attachment to your Sacred Perſon, an inviolable Fidelity to your Government, and a chearful Obedience to the Laws: And we do with Confidence aſſure your Majeſty, that nothing ſhall ever be wanting on our Part, to mark the diſtinguiſhed Senſe we entertain of the publick Felicity under the Reign of a beloved Monarch, who is the Father of his Country.

High Sheriff of the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of York.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of your Majeſty's extenſive and Commercial County of York, beg Leave to approach your Sacred Perſon with theſe unanimous Aſſurances of our Fidelity and Affection.

Ever zealous to teſtify our inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Family, and moſt beneficent Government, we rejoice at this happy Occaſion, of preſenting our Cordial Congratulations upon an Event ſo highly important to your Majeſty, and to theſe your Kingdoms.

Such has been your Majeſty's moſt wiſe and gracious Rule, ever ſince your Auſpicious Acceſſion to the Throne, that your happy and united People had but one Wiſh that was incomplete; we were deſirous that your Majeſty might enjoy in domeſtick Life, that abundant Meaſure of Felicity, which your paternal Affection had imparted to your People. And we cannot doubt of the Completion of this, when we contemplate and admire that Wiſdom, which directed your Majeſty to the Choice of a Princeſs, whoſe Illuſtrious Line has ſhewn the firmeſt Zeal for the Proteſtant Religion, and whoſe many eminent and amiable Endowments are worthy to be aſſociated with thoſe of a Britiſh King.

Your Majeſty aſcended the Throne of theſe Kingdoms at an Æra when they had ariſen to an Height of Glory, unknown to former Times. It has been obſerved, that the Security of unrivalled Power has cauſed the ſeveral Declenſions of great States, by introducing a Train of Vices deſtructive of the beſt modelled Conſtitutions: But with Hearts full of Gratitude, we look up to that gracious Providence, which has been pleaſed, at this important Criſis, to ſet over us a Prince of your Majeſty's diſtinguiſhed Piety and Virtue; and to give to your Majeſty a Conſort equally formed to enforce every great and good Purpoſe, by the engaging Motive of Royal Example.

Long, very long, may we enjoy the Advantages of ſuch an Influence, reaping as the Fruits of National Virtue, the Stability of our invaluable Conſtitution. And we truſt, that the ſame Divine Providence, which has endued your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort with ſuch rare and excellent Qualities, will make them the happy Inſtruments of promoting univerſally the Service of God, and the Good of the State: And thereby of perpetuating to lateſt Ages in undiminiſhed Luſtre, the Imperial Crown of Great Britain.

We rejoice at your Majeſty's Marriage with ſo amiable a Princeſs, whoſe great Virtues, together with your Majeſty's known ones, give us the greateſt Proſpect of domeſtic Quiet.

We beg Leave, moſt gracious Sovereign, to aſſure you, that we have long had the higheſt Opinion of your Majeſty's great Wiſdom, and that we ſhall always retain the ſtricteſt Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Family; and we preſume to hope, that your Majeſty, and your Royal Conſort, will never think your Confidence ill grounded, in relying upon us (as far as our little Abilities extend) to contribute every Thing to the Happineſs and Proſperity of your Reign.

The affable Deportment of your Royal Conſort having rendered her univerſally beloved, as a Queen, and your Majeſty being univerſally eſteemed as a King, we are obliged, both from Duty and Affection, to pray, that the King of King may grant your your Majeſty, and your Royal Conſort, Health and long Life, to ſee a numerous Race of Children, (imitating the Virtues of their Royal Parents) and every other Bleſſing which can advance your Majeſty, your Royal Conſort your noble Offspring, and your faithful Subjects, to the higheſt Degree of human Happineſs.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Montgomery.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Montgomery, beg Leave to tender our moſt ſincere Congratulations upon the happy Event of your Majeſty's Nuptials with a Princeſs diſtinguiſhed by all the Accompliſhments of Her Sex. You, Sir, reign in the Hearts of your faithful Subjects. To you, they pay Homage with Breaſts filled with Reverence and Love, from a thorough Senſe of your eminent and Royal Virtues. May your Majeſty, and your Royal Conſort, long live and be bleſſed with a numerous Iſſue. May they follow your glorious Example, and continue theſe Bleſſings to lateſt Generations: And, in the mean Time, may the Providence of God attend your Majeſties in all domeſtick and publick Concerns, and in prolonging your Reign over a loyal and moſt grateful People.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Approved Men of the Town of Guldeford in the County of Surry.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon, with joyful Congratulations upon your Majeſty's Auſpicious Marriage, and gratefully to acknowledge this freſh Inſtance of your Paternal Regard for the Welfare of your People, in the judicious Choice of a Princeſs for your Royal Conſort, deſcended from a long Series of Illuſtrious Anceſtors, no leſs firm in their Zeal for the Proteſtant Religion, than in their Attachments to your Majeſty's Royal Houſe, eminently diſtinguiſhed by her Superior Virtues, and adorned with every Qualification, that is capable of improving your Majeſty's Happineſs, and the Benefits your People already enjoy.

May the Divine Providence, which has united your Majeſties in this happy State, continue and increaſe the Bleſſings of it to both your Majeſties with a long uninterrup'ed Courſe of Proſperity, and a numerous Iſſue to perpetuate theſe Dominions, through a lineal Succeſſion, in your Royal Family to lateſt Generations.

WE humbly beg your Acceptance, moſt gracious Sovereign, of our Congratulations on your Marriage to a Princeſs, not only deſcended from a Proteſtant and illuſtrious Family, but formed by Nature, accompliſhed by Education, and we doubt not, deſtined by Providence, to be an eminent Bleſſing both to your Majeſty and your Kingdoms. So great is the Pleaſure we receive from this auſpicious Event, that it refuſes all Expreſſion. As nothing can be more ardently wiſhed by your loyal People, ſo nothing can be more naturally expected, than that the beſt of Monarchs ſhould alſo be the happieſt, and enjoy thoſe Satisfactions in domeſtic Life, which alleviate the Cares of Government, and without which even a Crown would be leſs an Ornament than a Burden.

'Tis among the Glories of your Majeſty's Character, that you deſpiſe every Thing which bears the leaſt Reſemblance of Adulation; and therefore we preſume not fully to expreſs even thoſe Sentiments of juſt Applauſe, which would otherwiſe burſt forth from our Hearts. But our fervent Prayers for your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort are under no Reſtraint. May the Ruler of Princes grant you ſuch a Length of Life, ſuch an Increaſe of Renown, ſuch a numerous and virtuous Progeny, and ſuch Bleſſings of every Kind; that future Subjects may think it the moſt emphatical Petition they can offer for their Sovereigns, that their Happineſs may be equal to that of King George and Queen Charlotte. As for us, we cannot wiſh our Poſterity a greater Priviledge in this World, than to be governed by your auguſt Deſcendants, through all Generations, as we are governed by your Majeſty.
